The document(s) containing the information specified in Part I of Form S-8 will be sent or given to participants in the Honeywell Truck Brakes Systems Company Savings Plan (formerly known as the AlliedSignal Truck Brakes Systems Company Savings Plan) as specified by Rule 428(b)(1) promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act of 1933.

Such document(s) are not being filed with the SEC, but constitute (along with the documents incorporated by reference into this registration statement pursuant to Item 3 of Part II hereof) a prospectus that meets the requirements of Section 10(a) of the Securities Act.

PART II

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference

The SEC allows us to "incorporate by reference" into this prospectus the information we file with it, which means that we can disclose important information to you by referring you to those documents. The information incorporated by reference is considered to be a part of this prospectus, and information filed with the SEC after the date of this prospectus will update and supersede information on file with the SEC as of the date of this prospectus. We incorporate by reference:

HONEYWELL'S SEC FILINGS (FILE NO. 1-8974)

Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2002.

Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on February 19, March 4 and May 14, 2002.

Annual Report on Form 11-K of the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Registration Statement on Form 8-B filed on August 16, 1985 describing Honeywell's common stock.

We incorporate by reference additional documents that Honeywell or the Plan may file with the SEC after the date of this registration statement. These documents include periodic reports, which may include the Plan's Annual Report on Form 11-K, and Honeywell's Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K, as well as proxy statements.

Item 4. Description of Securities

The securities to be offered are registered under Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

The legality of the common stock offered hereby has been passed upon by Victor P. Patrick, Vice President, Secretary and Deputy General Counsel, Corporate and Finance, of Honeywell. Mr. Patrick beneficially owns shares of Honeywell common stock and has options to purchase shares of Honeywell common stock.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Delaware law provides that a corporation may indemnify directors and officers as well as other employees and individuals against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement in connection with specified actions, suits, proceedings whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than action by or in the right of the corporation -a "derivative action"), if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. A similar standard is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification only extends to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, and the statute requires court approval before there can be any indemnification where the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to the corporation. The statute provides that it is not exclusive of other indemnification that may be granted by a corporation's charter, by-laws, disinterested director vote, shareowner vote, agreement, or otherwise.

Delaware law permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareowners for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareowners, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) payment of unlawful dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Under Article ELEVENTH of Honeywell's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, each person who is or was a director or officer of Honeywell, and each director or officer of Honeywell who serves or served any other enterprise or organization at the request of Honeywell, shall be indemnified by Honeywell to the full extent permitted by Delaware law.

Under Delaware law, to the extent that such a person is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of a suit or proceeding brought against such person by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Honeywell, or serves or served any other enterprise or organization at the request of Honeywell, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such action.

If unsuccessful in defense of a third-party civil suit or a criminal suit, or if such a suit is settled, such a person shall be indemnified under such law against both (1) expenses (including attorneys' fees) and (2) judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of Honeywell, and with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful.

If unsuccessful in defense of a suit brought by or in the right of Honeywell, or if such suit is settled, such a person shall be indemnified under such law only against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of such suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of Honeywell except that if such person is adjudged to be liable in such suit to Honeywell, such person cannot be made whole even for expenses unless the court determines that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

In addition, Honeywell maintains directors' and officers' reimbursement and liability insurance pursuant to standard form policies. The risks covered by such policies include certain liabilities under the securities laws.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Honeywell pursuant to Honeywell's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, Delaware law, or otherwise, Honeywell has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and it therefore unenforceable.

Based upon the foregoing, and having regard to legal considerations which I deem relevant, I am of the opinion that the Common Shares, when issued pursuant to the terms of the Plan, shall be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.
